South Pacific

This year, Central's music and public speaking departments joined forces to produce Rogers and Hammerstein's musical, "South Pacific". Directed by Robert Wilkinson and Raymond Opt'Hof, the versatile cast gave outstanding performances on both the 17th and 18th of April. Here are some scenes from the first dress rehearsal.

Irene Sherwood diligently paints sets.

Sheila Rolph sings "I'm Gonna Wash That Man Right Out of My Hair" to her fellow nurses and a couple of sailors.

The poignant finale with Sheila Rolph, Jim Nobles and Jim's "children", Michele Bonner and Kim Rogers.

Some sailors on the Pacific Island bemoan their fate by singing "Nothing Like a Dame".

Lynn Collins and Mary Ellen Coughlin sing "Happy Talk" to Pete Sweval.

The famous "Honeybun" scene with Sheila Rolph, George Althouse, and the cast of nurses and sailors.

Class of '67

As the sandpipers play in the early morn,
 We frosh, of our upperclass wings are shorn.
 With hardly a tear or nary a sigh
 We prepare to enter the Senior High.

Class of '68

(L. to R.) Fred Auermuller, President; Kerry Bayard, Vice-President; Kristine Endreson, Secretary; and Joni Walters, Treasurer.

Sand dunes stand 'neath bending grass
 Recording events of the eighth grade class;
 Graduation has passed, ending the year
 Now we look forward as ninth grade draws near.

THE EIGHTH GRADE CHORUS

(L. to R.) Carl Bach, Treasurer; Jim Hibbs, President; Margaret Manuwald, Vice-President; and Janice Revill, Secretary.

Class of '69

Sunset comes as the day passes on,
Revealing grade seven in the following dawn.
"Fiesta" has past with the rest of the year,
Now we look forward as eighth grade draws near.
